SUMMER READING INCENTIVES

Toddlers and young children

Pick up a page of early literacy challenges.
After completing 10, bring the sheet back for an art supply prize.

Elementary aged children

READING PRIZES

Complete a reading chart to earn a visit to our very cool prize bin!

READ FOR BEADS CLUB

How to participate:

- Sign up at the library
- Receive your Read for Beads sign-up prize.
- Come to our events!
- Read, then report what you've read to the librarian for beads.

Read for Beads is a great way to show the community how much you're reading!

Teens & Adults

Read OFL books and enter our reading raffle
for a chance to win gift certificates and prizes.

All programs and events are free.
For inquires and accessibility
arrangements, please reach out to us.

Family Events Tuesdays at 4pm

July 1, 4pm—Tie-Dye Party

Kids will learn basic tie-dye techniques and create their own vibrant, one-of-a-kind t-shirt to take home. Bring your creativity and something white to dye!

July 8, 4pm—Stuffed Animal Sleepover & activity

Bring in your stuffed animal for an art party and stuffy only sleepover. Pick up your stuffy on Wednesday after 2pm and hear all about the overnight silliness!

July 15, 4pm—Local Color

Our village is full of unique stories and history. The Orwell Historical Society will offer a glimpse into our past with a peek into the museum's collection.

July 22, 4pm—Needled Felted Owls

Create your own little owl friend with local wool. This event is led by local needle felter & artist Cindy Watrous.

July 29, 4pm—Material Exploration

Get creative while experimenting with different art making materials and learn about different art concepts in the process.
